

COOKIE POLICY OF THIS SITE IN COMPLIANCE WITH THE DIRECTIVE OF THE GARANTE DELLA PRIVACY (THE PRIVACY GUARANTOR).

The privacy guarantor has implemented a European directive that requires web page administrators to show visitors a banner informing them what the cookie policy of the site they are consulting is and to make its acceptance conditional on continued browsing.

Cookie Policy.

To make our site more accessible and more intuitive, we use cookies.

Cookies are small pieces of data that the web server provides to the user's browsing device (computer, tablet, smartphone, etc.) The information generated by using cookies allows us to optimize pages and our technical infrastructure, thus improving the site's navigation. Our site does not directly produce profiling cookies, i.e., those cookies that create user profiles and are used to send messages and advertisements in line with the preferences expressed by the user through their choices of web browsing. Our site, however, may contain links, services, images, or multimedia components from third parties that may, in turn, generate cookies over which we cannot have direct control.

Types of cookies.

Essential "technical" cookies are necessary for properly functioning the site's pages. Without these cookies, some functionality may be impaired, and access to content may be limited.

Cookies of this type do not collect any personal information about the user.

Functionality "technical" cookies: these are cookies used to store choices made by the user to improve navigation (e.g., language or to pre-filling a form with the name previously used).

This type of cookie may include personal information (e.g., user name). Without these cookies, some functionality and navigation between pages could be compromised.

Analytical cookies: these are cookies used to understand how visitors use the website:

whether they are new or returning users, how they move between pages, how long they stay on pages and the site, and what geographic area they come from. The data does not identify the user as a person but is aggregated anonymously by analytics tools. Deactivation does not in any way affect the functionality offered by the site.

Profiling cookies are installed to show site visitors content related to their preferences. They can, therefore, be used to deliver advertising content targeted to the person's interests. Cookies of this type work in conjunction with third-party sites and may track past browsing on pages on different domains. Cookies of this type usually track the user's IP address and other personal information.

Third-party cookies and services.

Third-party services and links (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, LinkedIn, Google Maps, etc.) are also present on the website, which can potentially place cookies on the user's electronic device when they are clicked.

Remember that the cookie use policy does not cover links on the website that direct to third-party websites. We therefore recommend that you read the privacy policies on the other websites you visit by consulting the links provided below.

Please read the following paragraphs carefully for more information regarding content provided by third parties and presented on our website (links, images, multimedia components, etc.).

We want to emphasize that the entity (henceforth "site publisher") does not receive any information from the respective third-party providers or service concessionaires regarding the data possibly retrieved from them. In some cases, only aggregate, and therefore anonymous, statistics will be provided, which are necessary only for accounting for the third-party services we purchased.

Google Analytics.

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). The Google Analytics components placed on our site may use cookies generated directly from Google Inc.'s and its partners' servers. As the site's publisher, we cannot provide adequate information on the use of cookies by the service provider/concessionaire.

In this regard, we recommend visiting the following link:

Facebook.

The website contains a button to link to the social network Facebook, 1601 South California Avenue, Palo Alto, CA 94304, U.S.A. This component may use cookies generated directly from the servers of Facebook and its partners. As a publisher, we cannot provide adequate information about the use of cookies by the provider/concessionaire of the service. In this regard, we recommend visiting the following link:

<http://www.facebook.com/about/privacy/> (language option on the bottom of the page).

Linkedin.

The LinkedIn button is a service for interaction with the LinkedIn social network provided by LinkedIn Corporation. Personal data collected: cookies and usage data. Place of processing: United States - privacy policy. Privacy Shield adherent.

Withholding consent: disabling cookies.

It is currently not possible to selectively turn off our technical cookies.

On the other hand, it is possible to disable them entirely. Concerning third-party cookies, please refer to the links provided in the previous paragraphs for possible deactivation selectively. Should you wish to deny consent for installing cookies generated by our site, you can customize the settings on your computer or device by location, if provided, to delete all cookies or by activating a warning message when cookies are stored.

Visit <http://aboutcookies.org> for more information about cookies and how they affect your browsing experience. It is essential to remind you that disabling cookies may prevent you from using some if not all, features or sections of the site.

Our Company will not be liable for any damages suffered by you, including loss of data caused by malfunctions related to the denial of consent to the use of cookies originating from our site and/or our partners' sites.

How to manage cookies on your PC.

For cookie management, we recommend that you refer to the sites of browser developers, as these vary continuously depending on the version of the software installed, specifically:
